Anty Drudge's Cure for the Blues.

Anty Drudge-"Won't you come home to tea with me.

John-"Come on, Sally, you have had the blues all day. A little fresh air will do you good." Mrs. Hardway-"No. I have to get up early to-morrow and get at the washing, so I want to get to bed early to-night." Anty Drudge-"Of all silly creatures! I suppose you have been thinking about your washing all day. No wonder you are blue. Now just go and put your things on right away. When you get down to my house I will give you a few cakes of Fels-Naptha and your blues and blue Mondays will vanish forever, and John's only day home will be more pleasant in the

Isn't a short, smooth road better than a roundabout, rocky one? Isn't that the road you would take by preference?

Well, the shorter, easier, smoother road in washing clothes is the Fels-Naptha way.

No rocks in your path; no boiling, hot
